The Arundel Mills Lube Center is very special; everyday I come to work knowing I have a chance to makes someone’s day! My favorite thing about being a location manager is, its kind like running your own business, the company gives you the tools and freedom to succeed.”

Ismail has another quote he tries to live by: “When we strive to become better than we are, everything around us becomes better too” – Paulo Coelho, the Alchemist.

We are so proud Ismail is a part of the WLR Automotive Group team. He is a hard worker and a great role model for all employees.
